

John F. Barrett
Board Member, Horizon Global Corporation
Corre Partners Management, LLC

Mr. Barrett was appointed to our Board on April 9, 2021. Mr. Barrett currently serves as managing partner and chief investment officer of Corre Partners Management, LLC (“Corre Partners”), an investment firm he co-founded in 2009 to invest in both public and private middle market companies in turnaround. Since March 2019, in connection with Horizon Global’s entry into the Second Lien Term Facility Agreement (as defined below), Mr. Barrett had been acting in a Board observer role on behalf of Corre Partners. Prior to co-founding Corre Partners, Mr. Barrett was a senior member of the investment team at Trafelet & Company, LLC, a private investment firm, from 2006 to 2009. From 2001 to 2006, Mr. Barrett served as senior vice president of the investment team at Avenue Capital Group, a global investment firm focused on identifying value opportunities in the distressed and special situation space. Mr. Barrett began his career at KPS Capital Partners, LP, a leading middle market private equity firm focused on turnaround investing. In addition to serving as a board observer for a number of companies within Corre’s Partners investment portfolio, Mr. Barrett served on the board of directors of Titan Propane until its acquisition by Energy Transfer Partners. Mr. Barrett brings significant turnaround and capital markets experience along with business analytical expertise to the Board.
