

Lee Adelman

Senior Vice President, Commercial
Horizon Global Americas, Inc.

Lee Adelman was appointed Senior Vice President, Commercial for the Americas in February 2020. In this role, Lee has overall responsibility for our Sales and Marketing functions for the Americas, and for the development and implementation of effective programs and product strategies that drive profitable growth. This will further enhance our brand portfolio, and strengthen our relationships with core customers.

Lee has enjoyed a distinguished career in our industry that has roots in our company having spent considerable time at Draw-Tite and Reese Products in various sales and marketing roles in the early part of his career. Before joining Horizon Global, he served as the Vice President of eCommerce for Curt Group where he spent sixteen years in a series of roles with increasing responsibility.
